Representative Michael A. Feighan (D, Ohio), a Member of the Committee on the Judiciary, House of Representatives, accompanied by his wife and daughter, is sailing from New York on the S.S. "UNITED STATES" on August 4 and arriving in Paris on August 9. At the time of departure their itinerary from Paris onward was still undetermined.

Mr. Feighan is traveling on official business for the Committee and has been authorized to utilize local currencies in the Congressional Travel Account (19FT561) to defray official travel expenses.

Provisions of the Handbook for Congressional Foreign Travel apply. Although Representative Feighan has not requested that hotel reservations be made in advance, assist in this if so requested. Also meet on arrivals to expedite customs clearances when his arrival is known in advance. Posts are requested to notify onward posts and the Department of his itinerary plans. Assist with travel arrangements if requested.

As a member of the Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, he is interested in immigration and refugee matters.

PARIS: Make hotel reservations at the Hotel Crillon, double room with a cot for the daughter.
